“Integral HorseMapping” designed for working with individual clients, teams and groups in personal, structural and organizational constellations.

Powerful application (s) of ‘The Integral HorseMapping’ concept, working personal/professional development with the Appreciative inquiry concept (David Cooperider)

The majority of our time will be learning by doing with horses in the pasture, paddocks and round pen. The program is videoed and the review of our taping provides a wonderful tool for debriefing the learning.

You will receive a 1 -3-minute video (post- workshop) to use for promotion on your website/ UTube promotion, etc. as you see fit.

As a licensed partner, you have access to information about concepts, training schedules, marketing, publications, pricing, etc. and so forth all published on the internal section of the HorseDream® Partners website.

As a Licensed HorseDream Partner you may become a HorseDream License Holder of your country, your state, your town or with your personal or company's name.
